KNOW YOUR BUSINESS

BUSINESS POINTERS — WHAT A SALES RECORD CAN TEACH YOU

By A. M. Burroughs

"It is by knowing what has sold that the chain-store fellows are able to make such enormous sales on such small stock."

The banana man who sells his entire stock of bananas every night can tell you the exact number of bananas purchased and the exact number sold during any business day.

He knows all there is to know about the "sales end" of his business. It isn't guess work with him. He knows absolutely what he has done, what he has sold, what he has purchased, what profit he has made.

With him each day's business is a separate business, just as much so as if he were a banana merchant on Monday, a peanut vender on Tuesday and a baseball player on Wednesday.

If he over-buys, he just cuts the price to make his stock move. He doesn't carry dead stock. It isn't necessary to take an inventory at the end of the day to find out how much stock he has. He has none.

What he doesn't know about his sales and purchases isn't worth bothering about.

He has a "statement of his business" that makes him look like a wizard compared to most retailers.

He has sales analysis down to a fine point.

Yet the banana man doesn't need to keep books. He has only one line of goods; he is his own and only clerk; he closes out his business every day—it is comparatively simple to arrive at all the sale facts.

But even the smallest retailer has a much more complicated business.

The average retailer has many lines of goods. He has several clerks. He doesn't close out his business every day. It continues from day to day, week to week, and month to month. He doesn't even close it out at the end of the year.

On account of its being bigger, he can't know as much about his business unless he uses larger methods for getting the information.

If a man has a mind big enough and superhuman enough to grasp all the details of a big retail store and to store them up in his memory for weeks and months—

Well, then, he would be wise enough to use records instead of his brain cells for a bookkeeping system.

He would do just what all the successful retailers, the chain-store fellows, the really successful one-man businesses are doing.

There is a chain of big clothing stores doing business in a number of cities, employing from twenty-five to a hundred clerks in each of the stores, which can give you just as complete information about its sales as the banana merchant who sells but one line of goods, has but one clerk and who closes out his business every day.

This chain-store company is not unusual; its methods are unusual only in that they are typical of the methods of other successful merchants in every line of business.

For every sale that is made in each of the chain of stores, the clerk makes out a sales slip giving the name and the amount of the goods sold and the price.

The bookkeeper tabulates this information and is able at the end of the day to tell how much goods of each line was sold, the number and the amount of sales by each clerk, the number and volume of sales in each department, and the number and volume of sales in the entire store.

In the home office the bookkeeper tabulates this information so that the managers of the big corporation that conducts the stores can tell at a glance exactly what profit has been produced by each line of goods and by each clerk in each store.

If the expenses in each store, for instance, exceed by one-fourth of one per cent the established average on the total sales, that store is going to hear from the home office before long.

Each store is allowed about 10 to 10½ per cent of its total sales as salaries. After the manager's salary in each store is taken out, and allowance is made for bookkeepers, stenographers, janitors, watchmen, etc., about 8½ to 9 per cent is left to pay the clerks.

If a single clerk shows sales in such a small amount as to raise the percentage represented by his salary to above 9 per cent, he will very quickly hear from the manager.

If the condition continues for any length of time, the clerk is certain to be dropped and someone put in his place who can reduce the cost of sales behind his counter to 9 per cent or less.

AT THE CHURCHES

VARIOUS TOPICS AND SOCIETY ACTIVITIES THROUGHOUT GLENDALE

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

As the pastor is attending the convention in Long Beach and as next Lord's day is expected to be the "biggest day" of all, the pulpit at this church will be occupied by the Rev. L. Swindle of Bisbee, Ariz., who is reputed to be an able preacher and who no doubt will have a splendid message for all who hear him.

As Mr. Swindle himself will attend the afternoon and evening sessions of the convention, the usual evening service at this church will not be held, thus giving some of the faithful ones an opportunity of visiting a sister church for an evening.

The men's class will be in charge of Rev. N. Jackson Wright and his efficiency is so well realized that a large number of men will no doubt be on hand. The study is now in the life of Paul, certainly one of the most interesting portions of the Bible.

Men, don't let anything keep you away.

Bible school is at 9:30 and Christian Endeavor at 6:45. Both of these should be kept in mind. The interest is well maintained for mid-summer.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Tomorrow morning the pastor, Rev. John H. Troy, will deliver his fourteenth lecture in the course that has been of such interest, the theme being "The Kingdom of Heaven in the Epistles." This series will be concluded on the following Sunday morning. It has been very helpful to all Bible students. Tomorrow morning Mr. A. R. Taylor of Covina, formerly of Glendale, will sing a solo.

The evening theme is "The Human Soul." Pastor Troy has a gospel message that he delivers in a forceful way and those who miss these Sunday evening talks are the losers.

The usual meeting of the B. Y. P. U. at 6:45. The topic is the next in order of the twelve great verses of the Bible, "The Courage Verse"—Josh. 1:9.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. J. H. Burma of the Second Presbyterian church, Dallas, Texas, will preach tomorrow evening at 7:45. The pastor will preach at the morning hour, 11 o'clock. Subject, "The Propitiatory Sacrifice of Jesus Christ." C. E. meeting at 6:30. Sunday school, as usual, 9:45.

The Sunday morning nursery is a good place for parents to leave little children during the preaching service.

Services will be held every Sunday morning and evening during August. Strangers are welcome at any and all services.

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Corner Fifth and South Louise streets. Rev. C. Irving Mills, D. D., rector. Holy communion at 7:30 and 11 a. m. Topic of sermon at the 11 o'clock service, "The Meaning of a Sacrament."

Church Note

The Women's Guild this coming week will be at the home of the secretary, Mrs. A. M. Parker, 411 South Louise street, on Wednesday at 2:30.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, holds services in the Masonic temple Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject Sunday, August 2, "Love." Sunday school at 9:30. Wednesday evening at 8. Reading-room, 415½ Brand boulevard, open daily except Sundays and holidays from 12 m. to 4 p. m.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

I. O. O. F. hall, Third and Isabel streets. G. Wenning, pastor. Residence, 450 West Broadway. Bible school 10 a. m. Service 11 a. m. Gospel for eighth Sunday after Trinity, Matthew 7:15-23. Topic, "Entering Into Kingdom of Heaven." Congregational meeting after close of service. Everybody welcome.

M. E. CHURCH

Sunday services, August 2: Sunday school, 9:40 a. m. Preaching by Rev. Parks, 11 a. m. Class meeting immediately following services. Epworth league, 6:30 p. m. Union service in the evening at the Presbyterian church.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Church of the Holy Family, Lomita near Adams, Rev. J. S. O'Neill, pastor. Mass at 8 o'clock. Sunday school at 9:00, and mass at 10:30.

WHITE RIBBONERS

MRS. RUBY J. SMART ENTERTAINS WHITE RIBBONERS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

It was the pleasure of the W. C. T. U. to hold their regular bi-monthly meeting Friday afternoon in the beautiful home of their president, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, 250 Verdugo road.

There was a large attendance and many ideas and plans were advanced to aid in voting California dry on November third.

All ideas and plans are received graciously by the Union.

As the president is a parliamentarian of national reputation, this is a great advantage in making the local Union a live unit in this important campaign, as all plans and ideas are brought out clearly by the learned president.

The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Loveless, who is superintendent of that department. Mrs. Loveless told a beautiful Bible story. She said: "The same power will guide this great movement for the embetterment of humanity, as in days of old when the savior dwelt among men. We are being led by a captain who never loses an engagement."

Mrs. Loveless has a beautiful conception of the Bible and her Bible lessons are always an inspiration.

Mrs. Nanny Palmer spoke on "red letter days." Red letter days are held to commemorate the birth of women who gave their lives to promote the temperance movement, which is penetrating this land like electricity.

Billy Sunday says: "May as well try to stop Niagara Falls with a toothpick as to stop the temperance force."

Mrs. P. A. C. Moore spoke most intelligently upon reasons given why California should not be voted dry November 2. Mrs. Moore is known as a practical woman and her arguments are always received with interest.

Mrs. Moore stated the enemies to California "dry" say taxes will be higher. Mrs. Moore proved this statement a mistake, as money will be thrown into channels to educate the children, provide for the home and better public improvements, instead of promoting child labor and breaking up homes and filling the penitentiaries with valuable material.

It costs $2000 to raise the average boy. It costs the state of California $29,000,000 a year to take care of some of these valuable boys after liquor has done its work.

Miss Leone Brice was present and favored the ladies with a very appropriate reading in which she told the story of two neglected children.

The very end to which the White Ribboners are working is to give all children a chance to get one hundred per cent out of life.

Miss Brice is a talented little miss, her services being highly appreciated.

Mrs. Hartley, superintendent of the department of literature, was present and gave out literature for distribution. Several hundred pages of literature were given out. Among the literature was:

"What Three Beers a Day Will Buy"—One barrel of flour, 50 pounds of sugar 10 pounds of cornstarch, 10 pounds of macaroni, 10 quarts of beans, 3 twelve-pound hams, 1 bushel sweet potatoes, 3 bushels Irish potatoes, 10 pounds coffee, 10 pounds of raisins, 10 pounds of rice, 20 pounds of crackers, 100 bars of soap, 2 twelve-pound turkeys, 5 quarts of cranberries, 10 bunches of celery, 10 pounds of prunes, 4 dozen oranges, 10 pounds mixed nuts.

Four big barrels heaped up! And in the bottom of the last barrel a purse with two pockets. In one pocket a ten dollar gold piece marked "a dress for mother," in the other pocket a five dollar bill marked "to buy shoes for the boys."

What is it?

That's what three beers for a year would buy.

Delightful refreshments were also served. The W. C. T. U. will meet next Friday afternoon, August 7th, at the home of Mrs. Ida Wood at the corner of Orange and Sixth streets.

A large attendance is requested.

DINNER FOR HOUSE GUESTS

In honor of her guests, the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Burma of Dallas, Texas, Mrs. J. H. Stauffacher of 421 Orange Grove avenue gave a dinner party at her home Friday evening. The color scheme of red and white was carried out through the five courses that were served.

Those present were the Rev. and Mrs. Burma, the Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Black and the host, hostess and family.

A pleasant feature of the evening was music given by Edwin and John Stauffacher with piano accompaniment by Miss Marguerite Stauffacher.

DRAMA OF CREATION

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION TO ENTERTAIN

Choice pictures from the best artists from all parts of the world are now being presented free to all by the International Bible Students' Association at the Glendale theater at the corner of Broadway and Isabel street at 3 and 8 p. m. Part three will commence tomorrow (Sunday) and continue until Wednesday.

The photo drama of creation is presented in four parts, including nearly two miles of beautifully hand-colored films, illustrating Bible history and Bible themes. Appropriate music accompanying the pictures makes the drama intensely interesting.

Part one, already shown, has traced the history of the human race from creation to the flood and down to Abraham's time. Part two takes us from Jacob's time, following him into Egypt, showing his son Joseph exalted to power next to Pharoahian Egypt, thus picturing the exaltation of Christ and he next to Jehovah God in glory and power. Then showing the Israelites in Egyptian bondage, the deliverance from bondage following the death of Egypt's first born, their crossing the Red Sea and final entry into the promised land. Showing Joshua, David, Solomon and the experiences of Israel to their taking into captivity by Nebuchadnezzer. and ending with an exquisitely beautiful hand-colored film illustrating the wanderings of Elisha, the hospitality of the Shunaminite, her promised son, and the death and resurrection of the boy.

Part three will be shown next Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 3 and 8 p. m., taking up the trend of events from this point, showing Jesus' boyhood, manhood, miracles, his crucifixion and burial in motion pictures.

The orator of the drama, explaining each picture as it appears, makes this production the greatest educational feature of its kind ever produced.

The fact that it is absolutely free is explained by the fact that voluntary contributions have been given for its support.

AFTERNOON KENSINGTON

A most delightful afternoon was enjoyed in the home of Mrs. E. E. Gates, 114 South Maryland avenue, Friday when a few neighbors and friends gathered together for a little Kensington party among themselves.

Bright summer blossoms bloomed in divers parts of the house, but in the rooms where the ladies sat and sewed red carnations prevailed.

Dainty and delicious refreshments and a cooling drink were served by the hostess, who was assisted during the afternoon by her house guest, Miss Lila Hall of Riverside.

Those present were Mrs. Herman Payne, Mrs. Anna Buchanan, Mrs. Claude Case, Mrs. O. S. Winter, Mrs. Andrew Freburg, Mrs. J. R. Bright, Mrs. Mary McLain, Mrs. James S. Mullen, Mrs. Thomas Atkinson, Mrs. W. Metcalf, Miss Hall and Mrs. Gates.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RATES

The Bank of Glendale, Broadway and Glendale avenue, announces that regardless of strained conditions effecting all the European countries and necessarily exchange rates, they can sell foreign exchange for urgent requirements, reporting the following rates. Hong Kong at 50, Yokahoma at 52, Sterling at $5 pound, francs at $4.75, marks $1 per four marks, lires $4.75 per dollar.

MRS. LAURA M. WOOD

Mrs. Laura M. Wood passed to her heavenly home this morning at 5 o'clock after a long illness, at the age of 74 years and four months, at her home, 331 South Louise street.

Seven months ago Mrs. Wood was taken with bronchial trouble and pleurisy and later paralysis developed which caused her death.

Mrs. Wood was born in the state of Vermont. When twelve years of age she moved to Ohio with her parents, where she lived until coming to Glendale two years ago.

She leaves to mourn for her two children, William L. Wood and Lilly D. Wood, both of Glendale.

Mrs. Wood was a faithful and consistent member of the Methodist church since childhood and her pastor, Rev. Bede A. Johnson, will conduct the funeral services at the Jewel City undertaking rooms at 2 p. m. on Monday.

Bread cast upon the waters might come back if man didn't expect ten loaves for one he threw over.

BUILDING PERMITS

PINK LUNCHEON

Assisted by her sister, Mrs. W. R. Petty, Mrs. C. B. Cunningham of 1222 Chestnut street entertained six young ladies, all of whom are nurses at the Clara Barton hospital, Los Angeles, at luncheon in her home today. Pink carnations furnished attractive table decorations and also a pretty and dainty motif for the delicious repast to be carried out in.

Besides Mrs. Petty, those seated at the table with the charming hostess were the Misses Waters, Archibald, Keyes, Botona and Campbell.

WILL MOTOR TO SAN DIEGO

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Crampton and daughter Grace, accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Flynn of Los Angeles, will start Monday morning for a week's motor trip to San Diego and adjoining places of interest.

Mrs. W. L. Colton of 411 South Central avenue, together with her little girls, Leona and Edith, are home again from a pleasure trip to Corona and Elsinore Hot Springs. Mrs. Colton went to Alhambra today to attend the birthday party given by her oldest daughter, Mrs. J. L. McKinnen.

FOR PRISON REFORM

MRS. BOHAN ADVOCATE OF SPECIAL PHILANTHROPIC WORK —ITEMS FROM TROPICO

Much interest is being manifested in the humanitarian and philanthropic campaign being waged by Mrs. Elizabeth Baker Bohan of Los Angeles, who is presenting in a most interesting manner prison reform. Mrs. Bohan is a most ardent advocate of a municipal farm where petty offenders can be cared for. Mrs. Bohan is a most interesting talker and carrying her firm convictions in every statement, lends a charming personality in all of her arguments. Many prominent society and club women of Tropico and Glendale and a large nubmer of men are so much interested in Mrs. Bohan's mission and earnest appeal for the unfortunate offenders of the law that a mass meeting is being arranged at which Mrs. Bohan and other equally as interesting advocates of prison reform will be present and give talks and present arguments along this special line of philanthropic work.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Weston were the dinner guests of Mr. C. E. Murdock of Los Angeles at a dinner party at the Chocolate Shop recently. Later Mr. Murdock entertained Mr. and Mrs. Weston at Cumnock's, where they enjoyed the reading of Mr. Murdock's one-act drama, Anti-Deluvia," by a professional reader.

Leigh Bancroft, James L. Fishback and Edward Clarence Shuey are enjoying a few days camping and hunting trip in Tejunga canyon, where they motored Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Chandler and Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Weston, motored to Elizabeth lake this morning, where they will be the over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Chandler.

Mrs. John Ashton and daughter, Miss Lena Ashton of Glendale avenue, will be the over-Sunday guests of Mr. Ashton at Ocean Park, who is located there at present.

Mrs. A. H. Gardner of Glendale avenue, accompanied by her children, left for Venice this morning, where they will spend a fortnight.

Mrs. A. B. Clarke entertained with a luncheon at her home Thursday, at which her guests included Mrs. Elizabeth Baker Bohan of Los Angeles and Mrs. Edward Henry Weston of Tropico.

TRIANGLE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Show us the man who says Glendale is not up and doing with a heart for any fate! Here is but another sign of life—a triangle tennis tournament—meaning Glendale, Tropico and Casa Verdugo—and which will be open to all residents of the above places provided they enter not later than August 15th.

Much interest is being manifested in this new feature, the events of which will be men's singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles. Valuable prizes for each event, including a silver cup for the men's singles, will be given at the close of the tourney.

There will be four courts and each court will have a round-robin event, the winners of these to play in the semi-finals on a court designated in the future.

The committee in charge of this triangle tennis tournament are Mr. H. N. Moore, chairman; Mr. G. G. Blue, treasurer; Mr. H. H. Faries, secretary; Mr. Albert Cornwell, Mr. Hugh Blue and Mr. Ray Morrow.

All entries should be made before August 15th with Mr. H. H. Faries at the Men's Shop, 1109 West Broadway. For full particulars communicate with any of the committee mentioned above.

Those already entered to play are Messrs. Ray Morrow, G. G. Blue, Ed Sadler, D. Balthis, Mr. Heacock, Morse Preeman and the committee in charge.

Hurry and arouse enthusiasm among your many friends by putting your name on the list and going forth to capture the cup.

CHICKEN DINNER AT PARK

Mrs. J. H. Webster of 147 West Park avenue entertained the following ladies and their "kiddies" with a delicious chicken dinner at Griffith park Friday, the trip to and from having been made by auto. Those present were Mrs. E. M. Lynch and daughter Genevieve, Mrs. Morgan and son Eric, Mrs. W. C. Wattles and son Gurdon, Mrs. Harry Lynch and Lila and Leola Webster. A glorious day in the open was enjoyed immensely by all.

If the clerk sells enough goods to bring the percentage represented by his salary down to less than 9 per cent of his sales, the management watches him and soon raises his salary or promotes him.

And then if a certain line of collars, for instance, doesn't sell as readily as some other line, the line which sells best (the store is in the position to know what sells best), will soon be the only line of collars carried — the line which will be pushed.

With complete sales information, these stores are able to quickly eliminate the goods which won't sell and to replace them with goods that will sell.

And no store which doesn't keep a complete record and which doesn't push lines which show a fair profit and drop lines which don't, cannot hope to keep with the stores like those in the chain.

Apply these methods to your business for a while and see if you don't increase your sales and decrease your ratio of expense.

FASHION FADS

Watermelon pink is a very pretty and a very popular color.

Mantels and jackets are gradually creeping up in fashion favor.

The wearing of white lace spats is a queer fashion that comes to us from Paris.

Great ruchings of silk or ostrich feathers are used to trim evening gowns and wraps.

Some of the newest bead necklaces are so long that they reach the bottom of the gown.

Fashion has decreed that there shall be all sorts of shapes and sizes of jackets.

The overdress of some of the newest costumes is as light and filmy as air, almost.

Tailored suits have changed. The feminine silhouette is becoming more and more of the boneless kind.

The side-tilted hat is responsible for the new large veil that is triangular in shape. It can be easily draped.

Roman striped and plaided waistcoats are very smart, but with a suit of light-colored fabric the flowered waistcoat is prettier.

Foulard has reasserted itself as one of the leading silks, and there is the possibility that a foulard furore will occur in the fashion world.

Gabardine is the newest material of the year. It is a cross between a poplin and whipcord; very pretty for morning and afternoon dresses.

The prettiest silk hose has a tiny stripe or drop stitch of a dark color. Others are quite plain except for embroidered clocks in the same shade.

American women used to go to Paris to see and get pretty dresses. Now some of them are going to get their faces beautified. One of the new fads is to have the forehead lanced across and a strip of flesh removed, so that the eyes are elevated and a calm, "saintly" expression is achieved.

CHURCHES MUST PAY TAXES

At least for the time being, the question of whether a church can claim exemption from taxation if it allows lectures and other entertainments to be held in the edifice, has been settled in the negative. This time it is the attorney-general who has ruled against the use of churches for these purposes.

Strange as it may seem, no objection to this use of a church had been made seriously until it was proposed to hold a meeting at which a champion of the redlight abatement law—against which the referendum has been invoked—was to lecture in favor of the measure and against the referendum.

The scheduled meeting was held notwithstanding the question, and nothing was done.

The whole matter was threshed out by the ministers and they asked the district attorney to tell them what was what, and the district attorney shoved the question along to the state's lawyer.

It is expected that the next move will be to endeavor to have those churches which allow entertainments to be held to be placed on the tax list. After all, it is up to the judgment of the individual assessors.—California Outlook.

KEEP HIM ON THE BENCH

A good man was under discussion when a by-stander said: "Well, if that man doesn't go to Heaven, then I don't see any reason for paying taxes to keep up such a place."

Everybody thinks he knows how to run a newspaper and the editor tells everybody how to run everything else. So it is just about an even break.

The initiative in California seems to be stirring up an awful fuss. The eight-hour law and city and county consolidation seem to be the principal offenders.

PERSONALS

Mrs. E. Beyea of 1508 West Broadway has returned to her home from a brief visit in Los Angeles.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Irving Mills of 442 South Louise street spent a few days this week at Newport Beach.

Mrs. J. E. Anderson and son, who for some time past resided on Hawthorne street, have gone to Boston, Mass., to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Foss of 1460 Salem street were entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Helen I. Campbell in her home, 435 Isabel street.

The first of next week Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vandeburg and daughter Marion will go to Manhattan Beach for a fortnight's vacation and rest.

Mrs. M. L. Watson and little son, George Byron, have returned to their home, 1434 West Second street, after a week's visit with relatives in the country near Whittier.

The many friends of Newton McGillis will be pleased to know that he is recovering from a light case of typhoid fever which has confined him to his bed for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Redmond, who have been guests of their son, C. A. Redmond and family, of 1431 West Fifth street, have returned to their home at North Platte, Neb.

Rev. Dr. Wm. DeLancy Benton, rector of Trinity church, Fredonia, N. Y., is visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, Archie M. Parker, of 311 South Louise street.

The dance in the Masonic temple this evening promises to be one of exceptional enjoyment and from all rumors a large number of out-of-town as well as local people will be present.

Mr. Forest Stuter, who is here from Pacific Grove to visit his sister, Mrs. Andrew Robertson, 925 Stocker street, has gone to Santa Ana and San Diego to spend a few days with other relatives.

Mr. E. U. Emery of 117 South Kenwood street left Friday evening for San Francisco, where he will join Mrs. Emery, who left several days ago for a visit with relatives in Berkeley.

Mrs. S. W. Corwin of 419 North Central avenue, together with her daughter, Mrs. John S. Dean and family, who are visiting here from the East, have gone to Redondo Beach for a week's outing.

Mr. Clarence Kellogg, a talented pianist residing in Alhambra, spent Saturday in Glendale as an all-day guest of Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper and her mother, Mrs. Edwards, of 1411 West Colorado boulevard.

Mrs. Ruth Head of 124 North Louise street, who with her two children and Mrs. Frank Richardson and son of 129 North Kenwood street have been spending the month of July at Hermosa Beach, are expected to return home in a very few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Chappell have given up their former home on Pioneer drive, Mrs. Chappell going to visit her parents in Denver, Colo., where she will later be joined by Mr. Chappell, who is still interested in business in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McIntosh and three little girls, June, Billie and Bobbie of Los Angeles, will spend the week-end in the home of Mrs. McIntosh's father, Mr. George Duffett, 1008 Chestnut street. An all-day picnic in San Antonio canyon will be enjoyed Sunday.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Goode will be sorry to learn they are leaving Glendale today to take up their residence in Los Angeles, where they will be at home to their friends on the corner of Normandie avenue and Thirty-eighth street.

Mrs. Arthur Chapman of Salem street will leave in a few days for Pacific Grove, where she will join her mother, Mrs. Frank Ingerson, and little son, Arthur Chapman, Jr., who is domiciled in her summer home there. Mrs. Chapman will remain away until the opening of school in September.

Mrs. A. D. Hurd of 236 South Louise street entertained at 12 o'clock dinner Friday. Places were arranged for Miss Anna Doyle, Gertrude and Dorothy Moffatt, Master Francis Moffatt and Glenn Hurd. Needless to say, these happy young people enjoyed the delicious repast served them by the hostess, as well as the good time which followed.

PRISCILLA CLUB

The last of the regular Priscilla Club parties was enjoyed Friday at the home of Miss Coral Griffith of 1471 Salem street, at least the last affair until the summer is over, as this merry little club have adjourned until Friday, September 11th, and then the same jaunty round of pleasure will continue with renewed energy.

As usual the afternoon was informally opened with a delicious luncheon served at the large table in the dining-room, where bright red carnations and feathery fern bloomed forth in all their pungent splendor.

Despite the fact that only six ladies were present, the day passed quickly and everyone enjoyed a most delightful time.

THIMBLE TEA

Miss Emily Ellias entertained informally in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ellias, 1456 Myrtle street, Friday afternoon, a few friends having been invited in for a thimble tea.

Yellow and white was carried out exclusively both in house decorations of Honolulu lilies and in the afternoon refreshments served, the latter of course having followed an hour or two of needlework.

Those who enjoyed Miss Ellias' hospitality were Mrs. Gus H. Pulliam, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler, Mrs. John A. Legge, Miss Myrtle Pulliam and Miss George Duffet.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The pastor, Rev. E. H. Willisford, will preach at 11 o'clock. Topic, "Lost Through Non-Use." Dr. Willisford considers this theme a most vital one and will treat it in an interesting and helpful manner. The pastor will have a story for the children. This will be the pastor's last sermon before his vacation. Strangers and visitors are cordially invited.

The Sunday school assembles at 9:45 a. m. and the C. E. meets at 6:45 p. m.

The Sunday evening service will be omitted during August. The midweek meeting will be maintained.

Pulpit supplies will be announced Sunday morning.

The pastor goes to the Y. M. C. A. camp at Catalina on Monday to conduct the Bible study for a week.

WANTED

We have the wireless telegraph,
The fireless cooker, too;
And smokeless powder is the thing
That's not entirely new.
We have the spineless female form,
The anecdoteless bore,
And now won't someone please invent
A first-class wolfless door?

He failed in Latin, fluked in French,
We heard him fiercely hiss,
"I'd like to find the man who said
That 'ignorance is bliss.' "

Casa Verdugo M. E. church, Park street west of Central avenue, opposite the school house. M. K. Stone, pastor. Sunday school, 9:45; J. E. Eckles, superintendent. Preaching, 11 a. m. Subject, "The Christian Panoply." Epworth League, 6:30 p. m. Preaching, 7:30 p. m. Subject, "As a Man Thinketh in His Heart So Is He." Good music and cordial welcome to all.

Mr. Robert Miller of Fairmont avenue is enjoying a well-earned vacation this week. Mr. Miller is well known as one of the best newspaper photographers of the Southland and is at the present time associated with the Express.

By request the musical conducted by the choir of the Casa Verdugo M. E. church, given several weeks ago, is to be repeated on Saturday evening, August 8th. Admission—adults 25c, children 15c.

Mr. Harry Longland of 1008 San Rafael street received news of the death of his mother, who died from pneumonia at her home in Pennsylvania last Tuesday.

Mrs. Phillip Ballerino of North Hoover street, Los Angeles, spent Friday in North Glendale as the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Murphy of 1648 Ruth street.

The many friends of Mr. R. C. Sternberg of 1226 Viola avenue will be very sorry to hear that he is confined to his home because of serious illness.

Miss Mary Pierce of 1013 Fairview avenue was the luncheon guest of her brother, Mr. Ernest L. Pierce, and family of 1425 West Thirty-eighth place, Los Angeles, Friday.

STATE TO FIGHT RABIES

Stringent measures—the invoking of the state quarantine law and punishments through convictions for violations—will be taken by the state board of health to stamp out rabies in California. The disease has increased to such an extent that it is almost state-wide. In 1913 there were reported cases from but fifteen counties. Already this year cases have come in from thirty-one different counties, an increase of sixteen.

An important feature in the report is that the rabies prevails during the fall and winter months as well as in the summer, and the showing is made that it is not a summer disease only.

The entire health force of the state will be drafted in the fight to control the disease.

ORANGE PULP GOOD FEED FOR CATTLE

Orange growers of California who are sometimes bothered to know what to do with culls may take a hint from a report made to the department of commerce by Consul R. Frazier, Jr., at Malaga, Spain, who writes:

The exporting of dried orange peel is a business of some importance at this city, it being estimated that in all some 1500 to 2000 mats of 138 kilos net or 304.2 pounds each—in all, between 207 and 276 metric tons of 2204.6 pounds—will be shipped from here this season.

Three kinds of peel are packed—thin sweet, thin bitter and thick bitter, of which the last is the highest in price. Thick sweet peel is not obtainable here in sufficient quantities for export, although a merchant consulted believed that some quantities of it are packed at Palma de Majorca in the Balearic Islands, and possibly at Valencia.

Bitter peel is a specialty of this part of Spain, about 1200 to 1500 mats of 138 kilos (in all from 166 to 207 tons) being counted on this year. It is now selling in the neighborhood of 240 pesetas per mat (equivalent at 18 cents to the peseta to $14.20 per 100 pounds), for the thick, and 130 to 140 pesetas per mat ($7.69 to $8.28 per 100 pounds) for the thin. Of the thin sweet peel less is exported, about 200 mats (28 tons) per annum, and it sells at the much lower price of 65 to 75 pesetas per mat ($3.84 to $4.43 per 100 pounds), whether cut in the form of ribbons, quarters or pieces.

The approximate amounts to be exported and the prices given are for the current crop, for both vary considerably from year to year, owing to the fact that in seasons of short pasturage in the interior districts orange pulp is fed to hogs and cattle and the peel is sent to Malaga for export, while in seasons of plenty rainfall and abundant forage the oranges themselves are exported.

Orange pulp is said to be an excellent cattle feed, froming in the spring especially a beneficial laxative.

There is plenty of money in the banks of California to move the state's heavy crops and to meet the requirements of its business and industrial enterprises. If this does not spell a lively phase of prosperity, what does it spell?

If General Carranza had less obstinacy and more tact, the chances of immediate peace in Mexico would be brightened.

The Serbs are a passionately patriotic people and are splendid fighters. To subdue them and conquer their native land will tax the military resources of even a first-class power.

MILLER CONFIDENT OF WINNING

Marshal Harry M. Miller says he is receiving a lot of encouragement in his candidacy for justice of the peace of Burbank township. Supporters are springing up from unexpected quarters and he is confident that he is going to be the next justice.

He is promising all of his friends light sentences in case he is elected, which perhaps accounts for the fact that he is getting so much encouragement.

POSTPONED UNTIL NOVEMBER

The board of supervisors have decided that the examination for the office of registrar of voters shall be postponed until after the November election. An exciting time was had at the board meeting on Monday, when representatives of various political organizations came before the board with pleas for the postponement of the examination on the ground that the work in the office was so heavy at the present time that a change in administration would complicate matters to the disadvantage of the voters.

INEXCUSABLE

Now that action has been taken for the abolishing of check cashing in saloons, one wonders why the thing wasn't done years ago. Even though city officials may have chosen to be silent on the matter, yet one would think that there would have been someone concerned enough about the welfare of the working man to see that some other means were provided for him to get his wages. Now that the police commission has taken its stand, why wouldn't it be a good policy for every employer to so arrange his affairs that his employes can conveniently and without obligations to anyone secure the money to which they are quite justly entitled. There is no reason why the employers could not arrange for the payment of their men as well as the saloons in the past have arranged for it. It is a stain upon Los Angeles' business methods that it had become necessary for the man with the pay check to seek the corner saloon every Saturday night in order to get his money. Good suggestions have been made of methods to provide for the wage-earner the money which he has labored for, and it is to be sincerely hoped that a satisfactory plan will be soon evolved and followed.—Hollywood Citizen.

When a woman puts "Gone to his reward" on her late husband's monument she is merely standing pat and is giving you two guesses.

Many a counterfeit man puts on a shine and passes for the real thing.

THE BUSTLE COMES BACK

The bustle is coming back again. In fact, some have already arrived and every once in a while we see a woman going about with an assumed deformity that she would give a great deal to be without if it were there for keeps.

The bustle is a difficult subject to handle—either literally or literarily. It is one of those things that refuse to be downed. Even when sat upon a bustle is not downed for sure. A short time ago we saw a woman and a bustle sink gracefully into a chair. The woman wore among other things, a look of absolute confidence. But presently the bustle began to work its way out. Just them another woman came up and asked the bustled woman whatever had happened to her back. And right there friendship ceased We walked away.

The bustle adds much to the new dances. That is, for the spectators at the new dances. Its gyrations when its mistress is doing the tango or the lightning streak glide is worth watching. We have always wondered just how a woman could fasten one of the things on securely enough to withstand the dance hall test, but we presume it is merely another one of those feminine secrets that are none of mere man's business—Ex.

USE "FORCE" THIS SUMMER AND KEEP COOL

—FINE FOR CHILDREN

"FORCE" is tne ideal food for hot weather. No need to worry about the children eating enough — give them "FORCE." Equally good for grown-ups.

"FORCE" is made from selected whole wheat, scientifically cooked and blended with malt, then rolled, flaked, baked and toasted.

Of all cereal grains, wheat is recognized as having the most valuable food properties. Whole wheat, in the form of "FORCE," is delicious to eat. It is full of nutriment. It is easy to digest.

The people who make "FORCE" have printed an interesting little folder. This folder tells how to prepare a number of delicious dishes using "FORCE" as a base.

If you want to try a pudding—something new—make a "FORCE" APPLE PUDDING. Every member of the family—from baby to grandmother — will say, "It is the best ever."

Your grocer will tell you that "FORCE" is his best seller. Ask him for a copy of the "FORCE" folder.

You can't get anything in the world without suffering for it. To be popular you have to laugh at the jokes other people tell.

Strange as it may seem, the most disagreeable fellow in the world is the fellow who agrees with everybody.

ALMOST 700 OUT FOR OFFICE

Six hundred and ninety is the latest total of nominating petitions filed in the office of the secretary of state by candidates who will seek places on the November ballot in the primary election August 25th. This includes all the candidates for state office, congress and for the legislature.

Bishop Olmstead was talking about boy nature. "I once said to a little boy, 'Do you know the parables, my child?'

" 'Yes, sir,' he replied.

" 'And which of the parables,' said I, 'do you like the best?'

" 'I like the one,' he answered, after a moment's thought, 'where somebody loafs and fishes.' "—San Francisco Star.

When a farmer who was a lukewarm supporter of good roads gets an auto, his enthusiasm gets full of "pep" and "ginger" and he is a good roads advocate right.

There are plenty of good friends for those that deserve them.

BIG GRAPE CROP BREAKS THE RECORD

EDOM, Cal., August 1.—All previous records in the production of grapes in the Coachella valley have been broken this year in the bumper crop of table grapes that is now being harvested and shipped to Eastern markets. The first car of grapes out of the Coachella valley brought $2475 on the Chicago market, and subsequent shipments at the rate of $2246 per car.

That a new industry is being successfully developed here in the valley is proved by the shipment of a carload or orange, lemon and grapefruit trees to the Southern California Home Builders at Edom. Cawthon Brothers have for several years been selling selected nursery stock grown here in the valley, where it is free from scale and pests. Their latest order consisted of a carload of citrus trees and was followed by another large shipment a few days later.

Why is it that a girl can look so dainty when she is dressed in white and a man looks like he was peddling something when he tries to wear it?
